

STEWARDSHIP COMMISSION REPORT

In the past triennium, the Stewardship Commission was composed of the following members: Mr. Stan Bantner, Mr. Steve Schumacher, Mr. David Wesenberg, Rev. Donald Pritchard, Mr. David Rohe, Rev. Wesley Reimnitz (until his taking of a pastoral call in the fall of 2011), Rev. Joel Cluver (replacing Rev. Wesley Reimnitz), and Mr. James Frazee, chairman of this Commission.

Stewardship Commission business:

1. Worked on District Guidelines for salaries.
2. Discussed the costs of Concordia Health Plan and options available.
3. Continued Stewardship Workshops for new pastors and vicars to the CID.
4. Conducted performance reviews of Stewardship Executive.
5. Continued working with Mr. David Rohe on the CEF Foundation and Scholarship Sundays.
6. Continued having the District Guidelines for salaries available on the District website.
7. Reviewed the financial reports from Camp CILCA.
8. Made available to all congregations the Stewardship materials of Ron Chewing from the Michigan District.
9. Worked with congregations on the Stewardship theme of "Generous Giving to a Generous Lord."
10. Continued the practice of sending CID representatives to the annual District Stewardship Leadership Conferences in Tempe, AZ.
11. Rev. Wesley Reimnitz continued to work with several congregations by conducting individualized Stewardship Seminars.
12. Presented stewardship awareness at the Family Life Convocation in fall of 2011.
13. Currently preparing a 3-year Stewardship Program for use by District pastors and congregations.

I wish to thank the members of the Stewardship Commission for their time and diligent work in achieving the above goals. I especially thank District Executive Rev. Wesley Reimnitz for his continuing guidance and support in this important work for the Central Illinois District. We pray for God's continued blessing on the work that He has entrusted to us and to every congregation in this District.

Respectfully submitted,

James T. Frazee, Stewardship Commission chairman
