Explanation of Terms:

- The term "parish pastor" refers to the called pastors, associate, and assistant pastors actively shepherding a congregation or congregations which hold voting membership in the District.
- The term "ordained minister" refers to persons who are on the Ministers of Religion-Ordained roster of the Synod which also includes emeritus and candidate pastors.
- The term "parish teacher" refers to persons who are on the Ministers of Religion-Commissioned roster of the Synod and who as teachers or directors of Christian education are actively serving a congregation or congregations which hold voting membership in the District. Excluded under this particular designation are emeritus and candidates.
- Some positions require a "Commissioned Minister" in which case a parish teacher/DCE as well as an emeritus or candidate teacher/DCE can be nominated.
- The term 'layman' refers to voting lay members of congregations which hold voting membership in the synodical District." Consequently, men or women can be nominated for district positions calling for a "layman" or "laymen" to serve.
