

Casey

When Casey is in Macomb, he participates in worship, Bible study, and social activities at Immanuel Lutheran Student Center. It has not always been so, though.

Casey attends Western Illinois University. When he first came as a freshman, he was not a Christian.

What happened?

Just a couple weeks into his first semester, Casey met Courtney in the dining hall. He heard her say, "I'm going to church tomorrow morning." Casey asked if he could go along.

Not only did he go, he stayed.

With Courtney's example and encouragement, he went to a Bible Study. Then he studied Luther's Small Catechism with campus pastor Mike Burdick.

The Holy Spirit worked through the Word. Six months later, Casey was baptized into Christ, surrounded by his new friends. His baptismal sponsor, Courtney, stood right there, promising to walk together with him.

Campus ministries help Lutheran college students remain in their baptismal faith. They encourage and equip these young people to invite non-believers to know the truth and grace of the Triune God. Casey is one of them.

The Lord used your congregation's gifts to the Central Illinois District to put Immanuel Lutheran Student Center in place and maintain its ministry, for folks like Casey . . . and Courtney . . . and so many others. Thank you!

"I thank my God . . . because of your partnership in the gospel" (Phil. 1:3-5).

Casey

When Casey is in Macomb, he participates in worship, Bible study, and social activities at Immanuel Lutheran Student Center. It has not always been so, though.

Casey attends Western Illinois University. When he first came as a freshman, he was not a Christian.

What happened?

Just a couple weeks into his first semester, Casey met Courtney in the dining hall. He heard her say, "I'm going to church tomorrow morning." Casey asked if he could go along.

Not only did he go, he stayed.

With Courtney's example and encouragement, he went to a Bible Study. Then he studied Luther's Small Catechism with campus pastor Mike Burdick.

The Holy Spirit worked through the Word. Six months later, Casey was baptized into Christ, surrounded by his new friends. His baptismal sponsor, Courtney, stood right there, promising to walk together with him.

Campus ministries help Lutheran college students remain in their baptismal faith. They encourage and equip these young people to invite non-believers to know the truth and grace of the Triune God. Casey is one of them.

The Lord used your congregation's gifts to the Central Illinois District to put Immanuel Lutheran Student Center in place and maintain its ministry, for folks like Casey . . . and Courtney . . . and so many others. Thank you!

"I thank my God . . . because of your partnership in the gospel" (Phil. 1:3-5).